

CANINE PARVOVIRUS

CLINICAL SIGNS

1. Loss of appetite
2. Fever
3. Lethargy
4. Vomiting
5. Severe diarrhea containing blood. Sometimes diarrhea is without blood.

DIAGNOSIS

Based on history taking and clinical science and fecal antigen testing. There is an incubation period of three to seven days before the onset of first symptoms.

Prevention and Cure

1. Scheduled vaccination
2. Good hygiene
3. Quarantine infected animals
4. Veterinary care
5. Manage symptoms

MASTITIS(in dairy cows)

CLINICAL SIGNS

- 1.Swelling and Heat
- 2.Redness and pain
- 3.Change in milk appearance
- 4.Fever and behavioural changes.
- 5.Abnormal milk flow

DIAGNOSIS

- 1.Visual inspection
- 2.Strip cup test
- 3.Somatic cell count
- 4.California mastitis cell
- 5.Bacterial culture

Prevention and Cure

- 1.Proper milking technique
- 2.Good hygiene
- 3.Antibiotic treatment
- 4.Culling of severely affected cows
- 6.Veterinary care